

| Day One             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| 17-Oct-25           | Title                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Speaker                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| 8:30 am - 8:45 am   | Welcome and Conference Structure                                                                                                                                                                                             | Selby Schultz, ECS Law Group                                                                                                                           | Big Group Session                      |
| 8:45 am - 10:00 am  | Section 504, MTSS / RtI, and IDEA: What is the Dividing Line?                                                                                                                                                                | Anna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. (ECS Law Group)                                                                                                             |                                        |
| 10:00 am - 11:15 am | Legal Updates and Recent Supreme Court Cases                                                                                                                                                                                 | Harold McCall, Esq. (ECS Law Group)                                                                                                                    |                                        |
| 11:15 am - 12:30 pm | The State of Texas and The TEA Dyslexia Handbook                                                                                                                                                                             | Audrey Young, Ed.D, M.S.Ed., Ed. Diag (State Board of Education District 8)                                                                            |                                        |
|                     | LUNCH BREAK                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |
| 1:00 PM - 1:50 pm   | Breakout Session:Exploring Dyslexia and Co-occurring ConditionsFacilitating an ARD Meeting                                                                                                                           | Goldie Tappan, M.S.Ed. (Region 20)Audrey Young, Ed.D, M.S.Ed., Ed. Diag (State Board of Education District 8)                                      | Session 1aSession 1c               |
| 2:00 pm - 2:50 pm   | Breakout Session:From Evaluation to AccommodationCan AI Make You a Better Reader? The Text-to-Speech ExperimentFacilitating a Section 504 Meeting                                                                | Christen LaChance, M.Ed, Ed. Diag.Necola Glaze, Alamo Community CollegesCheryl Alderman, IDEA National Director of Section 504                 | Session 2aSession 2bSession 2c |
| 3:00 pm - 3:50 pm   | Breakout Session:Dyslexia 101: Understanding and Supporting Students with DyslexiaPrior Written Notice Tool KitSection 504 Parental and Student Rights                                                           | Jasmin Dean, Celebrate DyslexiaAnna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. (ECS Law Group)Cheryl Alderman, IDEA National Director of Section 504                | Session 3aSession 3bSession 3c |
| Day Two             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |
| 18-Oct-25           | Title                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Speaker                                                                                                                                                |                                        |
| 8:20 am - 8:30 am   | Welcome and Conference Structure                                                                                                                                                                                             | Selby Schultz, ECS Law Group                                                                                                                           | Big Group Session                      |
| 8:40 am - 9:30 am   | Breakout Session:It Should Not Be Hard to ARDThe Intersection of Learning Disabilities and mental IllnessWhat happens after graduation? Does my IEP or IAP transfer to postsecondary?                            | Antoinette Flores, M.A.Ed (Edgewood ISD)Karen Kohler, Ed.D (LDATX)Anna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. (ECS Law Group)                                   | Session 4aSession 4bSession 4c |
| 9:40 am - 10:30 am  | Breakout Session:Addressing the Needs of Struggling Older Readers vs. Younger ReadersEverthing The Principal Wants You To Know About The ARD ProcessConducting and Documenting an MDR under IDEA and Section 504 | Megan Lozano, M.S., LDT, CALT-QI (Region 20)Nicole Freemyer, M.S.Ed, Ed. Diag. (Principal Comal ISD)Anna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. (ECS Law Group) | Session 5aSession 5bSession 5c |
| 10:40 am - 11:30 am | Breakout Session:Addressing Absences and School RefusalSupporting Students in MTSS/RTINavigating Difficult Conversations in a School Setting                                                                     | Brent Draker, M.Ed. Northside ISDChristen LaChance, M.Ed, Ed. Diag.Cheryl Alderman, IDEA National Director of Section 504                      | Session 6aSession 6bSession 6c |
| 11:40 am - 12:30 pm | Breakout Session:SPED Ready!From Awareness to Action: The role of Child Find.How to most effectively defend "comp ed" claims?                                                                                    | Antoinette Flores, M.A.Ed (Edgewood ISD)Nicole Freemyer, M.S.Ed, Ed. Diag. (Principal Comal ISD)Anna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. (ECS Law Group)     | Session 7aSession 7bSession 7c |
|                     | LUNCH BREAK                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |
| 1:00 PM - 2:00 pm   | Dispute Resolution Paths: Mediation, Due Process, and OCR                                                                                                                                                                    | Harold McCall, Esq. (ECS Law Group)                                                                                                                    | Big Group Session                      |
| 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm   | The Top Section 504 and IDEA Mistakes And How To Avoid Them                                                                                                                                                                  | Anna Draker, Esq., M.S.Ed. and Audrey Young, Ed.D, M.S.Ed., Ed. Diag                                                                                   |                                        |